MORE TROUBLE IS EXPECTED AT CAIRO

Governor Orders More Troops to Riotous City.

Springfield, Ill., Feb. 21.—Governor Deneen has issued orders for Company H of Shelbyville, I. N. G., to proceed to Cairo at once and join the troops already on duty in that city, as a result of the attack on the jail last Thursday night by a mob bent on lynching a negro under arrest for snatching a woman's purse. Since the identity of the negro members of the sheriff's force which killed one of the mob and wounded several others, became known as a result of bringing the deputies before the coroner's jury Saturday, feeling has run high. There are many sullen criticisms made of the sheriff's action in deputizing negroes to fire in a band of white men, which has alarmed the sheriff.

COUNTERFEITERS GO TO PRISON

United States Marshal Takes No Chance With Desperate Gang.
New York, Feb. 21.—Ignazio Lupo, Cuspepe Morello and the six other Sicilian counterfeiters who were sentenced in the United States circuit court to long terms in the federal prison at Atlanta, were transferred from the Tombs. Marshal Henkel, anticipating a demonstration by friends of the men, had 26 deputies at the Tombs besides the four policemen that came with the two patrol wagons. But apparently the friends decided to dispense with the leaving.

The men were handcuffed in couples. Lupo and Morello being paired. The prisoners, four in a wagon, were taken over the ferry to the Pennsylvania, depot, where they were kept in the immigrants' waiting room until train time. Six deputy marshals accompanied them south.

LITTLE COUNTESS ARRIVES

London, Feb. 21.—Congratulations continue to pour in on the Earl and Countess Granard on the birth of a daughter. The Earl of Granard is one of the most prominent Roman Catholic Peers of Great Britain.

WEEK WILL BE COLD.

Washington, Feb. 21.—The following special bulletin on the weather for the present week was given out by the weather bureau:
"In practically all districts from the Rocky mountains to the Atlantic coast and from the Rock-les over the north Pacific states, the present week promises to be unusually stormy and cold."

FIFTY LIVES LOST IN BRITISH GALE

Wrecks Sirew Coast and Ships Are Unable to Land.

London, Feb. 21.—An exceptionally violent southwest gale which has prevailed over the British Isles for two or three days has reached hurricane force, the wind sometimes reaching a velocity of 80 miles. There have been several wrecks on the coasts and a number of disasters ashore, resulting in the aggregate of nearly 50 deaths.

The steamer Queen from Boulogne, with 150 passengers, vainly tried to enter Folkestone. She was finally compelled to stand off at sea where she has been tossing like a cork for hours. The Cunard line steamer Mauritania was compelled to lie off Queenstown for nine hours before she was able to enter and embark mails and passengers for New York. When she reached she was unable to drop the local pilot at Roche's Point and is taking him to New York.

INDICTMENTS REPORTED DRAWN

Rumors at Chicano Say Grand Jury Is After Packers.

Chicago, Feb. 21.—It became known that indictments have been drawn in the government's beef investigation, and that the return of true bills against the packers awaits the verdict of the federal grand jury which has heard the evidence submitted during the past four weeks by District Attorney Sims and his assistants.

Two Killed in Panic.
El Paso, Tex., Feb. 21.—A fuse blew out on an Arizona street car and created a panic among the passengers. A. G. Smith and Miss Maggie Reilly were killed and W. H. Weldon of Kansas City was badly injured that he probably will die.

PA'S NEW HONOR.

WE used to brag a heap 'bout dad because he fished so many times. Most all the lodge pins to be had here, and we were proud as kings.

But now our heads are higher yet, and all the neighbors get the snub. We're lettin' him know, you bet. That father's joined an aero club.

He's put away all pins and charms and just wears one upon his breast. Alone the bird man's coat of arms is resting on his many chest.

The people stare to beat the Dutch and wish they had that gold fus-dub. This Paulsen ain't no awful much. Since father's joined an aero club. Of course he's never tried a flight—Ma says he's tightly minded, though—but he'll go up some time, all right. Just like the Wrights or Bleriot. And now there's glory here for all. Right down to little Sis and Bub. The family hats are all too small. Since father joined an aero club. —Arthur Chapman in Denver Republican.

Helping the Minister.

A Scotch preacher had in his congregation an old woman who was deaf. In order to hear the sermon each Sunday this old lady would seat herself at the foot of the pulpit stairs. One day the sermon was about Jonah, and the preacher became very rhetorical.

"And when the sailors threw Jonah overboard," he said, "a big fish swallowed him up. Was it a shark that got him? Nay, my brethren; it was never a shark. Was it a swordfish that eat him? Nay?"

"It was a whale," whispered the old lady excitedly.

"Hush, Biddie!" said the preacher indignantly. "Would ye tak' th' word of God out of yer an' meenister's mouth?"—Success Magazine.

Time Suitable.

The clergyman's telephone bell jingled merrily.

"Well?" he asked, snatching off the car piece.

"Am dis de Rev. Mistah Kline?" "Yes, ma'am."

"How long will yo' be home dis afternoon?" "Oh, I'll be in and out every half hour or so. Why?"

"Me and Jim Jefferson want t' git married dis afternoon. Will yo' orchestrate if we come down?"

"Yes. How will 3 o'clock do?"

"Fast rate. Dat'll gib me time t' do another washin' fust."—Judge.

After the Winter.

An' we'll hab a chance ter wander Jes' got through de winter, Jes' live out de snow Where de BT violets grow.

Jes' get ter de bilzard, Jes' get past de storm, An' we'll wander ter de ribber When de days an' nice an' warm.
